

August 8, 1940.

Commander Thomas Anderson,
West Side Memorial Bldg.,
Adriatic Ave.,
Atlantic City, N. J.

Dear Sir:

I am writing to tell you I have ordered the placards shipped directly to you for the Ball Game to be played in Atlantic City, N. J. on August 23rd and 24th between the Newark Eagles and the Homestead Grays. I will appreciate a card from you, telling me when they are received. You will also be send publicity for the newspapers. If you prefer for me to send the stuff directly to the papers, let me know.

I have not seen Atty. Burrell, but have talked to him on the telephone and will see him within the next few days or two to iron out all details.

I have arranged for the portable lights, so in the meantime you have any reason to believe the other lights will be finished in time, please let me know so I could cancel the order for the portable ones.

I wish to thank you for your co-operation, I am sure we will be able to make a worthwhile contribution towards your Junior Rifle and Drum Corp, if the weather is good. If there is anything further you would like me to do, Please let me hear from you.

Very truly yours,

AM:CCJ

P. S. Atty. Burrell told me he would see to it that accommodations were arranged for the Ball players at a reasonable figure. They will need rooms for the night of the 23rd only. Please let me know if you will be able to take care of this, as I am sure it will not be an easy job to find accommodations for this last week in August.